LYNCHBURG, VA., May 2 .- The Law makers were defeated by one run in the twelfth inning of a very exciting game here to-day. With the score standing 8 to 8 in the eighth inning, the battle raged fierce and scrappy until the open ing of the twelfth inning, when Eck stone juggled a ball from Shaver's bat. Following this, a sacrifice and two scratch hits brought Lynchburg's short-stop over the rubber for the winning run. Pande monium reigned in the grand stand and bleachers. The crowd did not number more than a thousand, but those thousand people did certainly make a lot ise. In fact there has never at any time been such excitement over a game of ball as was manifested here to day. For three hours and a half the battle was on. In the early stages of the game it looked good for Richmonu. But after Moser, the star twirler for the Hill Climbers, had gotten into the box, there was nothing doing, save one little tally. He won his game, too, with a single in the last inning, that brought Shaver over.

Story of the Game.

Weater, the southpaw released last week by Manager Shaffer, re-employed this week, and traded to Manager Grim, for Laval, another left-handed man, open ed the game. He pitched all right, but was wild, allowing six men to walk. The clean swats by Anthony and Hicks In the first inning gave the Lawmakers In the first inning gave the Lawmakers one run, and in the fourth inning the first two men walked. This was too much for Grim, and he sent in Charters. The Manchester lad walked the first man, filling the bases. Cowan flew out to center, and Lee Sharp scored. But Fry got transportation, and again the sacks contained runners. Titman was safe on an error, and Charlie Shaffer put his understrading piece on the plate. Hamilton scored the last run of this inning on Rose's drive to second, which killed Titman. Anthony was out at first. Titman. Anthony was out at first. Charters walked Cowan in the sixth;

Fry popped up to third; Titman ozoned and Rosa walked. Cowan stole second and Rose was on first. Jack Anthony ambled to the plate. Charters put some spit on the sphere. Then he rubbed his thumb on the sphere. Then he laborations that on the wet spot. His right arm wound his anatomy into a bundle, and then the ball slipped through the atmosphere. It might have landed in the catcher's mit if Jack hadn't stuck his bat out. But Jack did wiggle the tunber a little, and Jack did wiggie the tunner a little, and the horschilde went to the race track in record-breaking time. When its riders got into the starting place again, Jack had crossed the plate and scored, as also Cowan and Rose. This made the score 7 to 8 in favor of the Lawmakers, and everything that had the Richmond spirit in it was moving about wildly yelling.

But there was the eighth inning to

But there was the eighth inning to come. Charters went out from Sharp to Shaffer and Daringer got a single. -- was holding to the first sack when Bowen, the second baseman for the home team, got against a small fry for four sacks. Then the crowd got its first wildness. For this home run had brought the score up to 8 to 7 in favor of the home boys. Shaffer's men got busy in their half of the linning, however, and brought Titman, who has received transportation along with Rose, over the plate. Hicks binged a long one to center, and Titman had no trouble in scoring. Rose dug it up for the plate, and died there on a relay throw. The right-fielder got the sphere and tossed it to the second baseman, who sent in a hot one to the sphere and tossed it to the second baseman, who sent in a hot one to Walsh. The ball got to the catcher about the same time that Rose landed there. He was called out by Umpire hoffner, and right here the game was lost. Rose claims that the catcher dropped the ball and that he was lying on it when he was called out at the plate.

First Man Fined. Cowan came to bat in the ninth inning, and Umpire Hoffner called a strike on him. He protested, and ran towards the man with the indicator. He was fined 5 and ordered to the bench. Hinton had to take his place with the willow. A few minutes after this, according to Mr. Hoffner, Cowan applied from the field an insulting epithet to him, and for this he was again fined $5. He was the first man to be fined in the league thus far, but a second one was not far behind him. Joe Weaner, the southpaw, Richmond-Lynchburg man, was ordered from the coaching line to the bench, and a few minutes afterwards ran in the direction of Mr. Hoffner in a protesting manner. of Mr. Hoffner in a protesting manner. He will have a V taken out of his salary

The Lawmakers left to-night, and will be in Richmond to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock. Colonel Still, from Kentucky, Sah, will do the twirling against Roanoke san, will do the twiring against Roanoxe there to morrow. Hinton will be behind the bat, and Lee Sharp will relieve Eddi. Rose in the left garden. Lee has been doing spine good hitting here, and to-day, in the game at shortstop, he played well.

He has two errors, but both of them were on difficult chances. The official score is as follows:

NORFOLK WINS AGAIN.

Takes Three Straight Games From Danville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., May 2.—Norfolk wor DANVILLE, VA., May 2.—Norfolk won the third straight game of the series from Danville here to-day by the score of 6 to 4. The game was, as were the other two, close and exciting, but was literally given away in the eighth inning by Catcher Benny, of the locals, who, while two men were en bases, threw the ball away and allowed both to score. The features of the game were the home run by Evans, in the sixth inning, and the fast fielding of Blerman, for the Tobacconists. Captain Clark, of the visitors, was sent to the bench in the third inning by Umpire Wingard, when, while disputing a decision made by the umpire, he attempted to strike him. Sykes took his place at second and played an errorless game. The following is the score:

WON HER FIRST GAME

Portsmouth Done Some Whirlwind Work.

wind Work.

PORTSMOUTH, VA., May 2.—Portsmouth won her first championship game of the season to-day, defeating Roanoke by a score of $ to 6. It was an exciting contest, in which the Truckers oxcelled in the field and at the bat and showed a marked improvement in team work and base running. Portsmouth started of like a whirlwind and scored in nearly every inning, while Roanoke falled to tally until the fourth, when two runs came in on a single and two errors. Three of Roanoke's hits should have been easy cuts. They were sent to left field, but Reynolds was unable to see them on account of the sun, and they fell safe. Roanoke was off in her fielding, but Kitterman was hit hard. Reveil relieved Fenski in the eighth, and put an end to Roanoke's scoring. McCormack and McDonough ded in hitting.

BROWNIES WIN IN OPENING GAME

Defeat Richmond College by Close Score of Four to Two.

RICHARDSON'S THREE-BAGGER

Winston Makes Three Hits Out of Four Times at the Bat.

In a pretty game that showed up only one error against them, the Brownles vesterday afternoon defeated Richmond College by a score or 4 to 2 in their openshows, the game was close and was well played by both sides. Throckmorton, the Spiders' handy little pitcher, allowed only seven hits, and Winston, for the Brownles,

There was only one three bagger, and that was made by Richardson, the Richmond College third baseman, who in the eighth inning swatted one to deep right field and went three-fourths of the way round the square before he stopped. Elmore, the Brownles' catcher, made the only two bagger, when he made a pretty hit in the third' inning. Winston appeared as the star wielder of the willow, going to hat four times and making three hits. The last time he went to bat Throckmorton, resolved not to allow him another hit, struck him out and retired the side. The Brownles went to bat first, and were presented with a goose egg. In the second inning they made two runs, when Anthony went to first on a wild throw by Richardson, was advanced to third by two men going down, and later came in, with Smith following. No more runs were made until the eighth inning, when Elmore went to first on an error of Talman, stole second, reached third on a passed ball, and came in when Hulcher went to first on an error of Gardner.

The Spiders made nothing in the first three innings. In the fourth Handy singled, went to second bag on a fielder's choice, went to third on the same, and came in on Talman's single. Talman was brought in on Throckmorton's single. that was made by Richardson, the Rich-
